MAKING INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS WORK IN DISTRESSED MARKETS

June 16-17, 2009

In declining markets, the legal questions confronting international business lawyers become even more challenging. Join corporate counsel and private practitioners from more than 25 countries for this frank discussion about financing and structuring international deals, insolvency, D and O liability, ethics and the future of international law. One of the featured sessions will be a general counsel roundtable.

Tuesday, June 16
