

ETHICS TRAIN-THE-TRAINER

What's Right? What's Wrong? What's the Difference?

Ethics and Character: Issues that Go to the Heart of Policing

"One of the best courses I have been to. A difficult subject because at times the answers are not so black and white, but we have been given the tools to present the material so it will be received well and there will be some credibility behind the presentation."

"Very good workbook... great resource material. MORE THAN ENOUGH for either 8 hour or 16 hour training block."

"Well presented and an enjoyable course. Texas hospitality is second to none!"

"Great class... one of the best I have ever been to."

September 11-15, 2006 participants

Course Overview: Successful completion of this four and one-half day program will authorize graduates to present the eight hour Law Enforcement Ethics, the sixteen hour Ethics for Field Training Officers, and four hour In-Service Ethics courses within their own agencies or local/regional academies.
