THE CHALLENGE TO LEAD: ISSUES IN LAW ENFORCEMENT LEADERSHIP

May 21-23, 2007 ■ Plano, Texas (Dallas metroplex)

This intensive three-day gathering is designed as a “think tank” for progressive law enforcement executives. Extensive discussion and debate will characterize the sessions, giving participants the opportunity to examine and reflect upon a range of complex issues confronting leaders in the law enforcement profession.

Among other readings, the Leadership Symposium will focus upon a collection of original articles drawn together in commemoration of the 50th Anniversary of the Institute for Law Enforcement Administration. Required readings will be sent to each participant prior to the beginning of the program.

Symposium Focus Points

- Becoming a Leader of Virtue
- Recruitment and Hiring in Today’s World
- Imagining a New Law Enforcement Structure
- New Technologies in Old Organizations
- Creating and Managing a Multicultural Agency

Who Should Attend

Top police administrators who recognize the need for innovative approaches to leadership in law enforcement.

Course Hours

Registration will begin at 8:00am, with sessions on Monday and Tuesday from 8:30am to 4:30pm. The symposium concludes with the 50th Anniversary Luncheon on Wednesday at 12:00 noon.
