

ETHICS TRAIN-THE-TRAINER

What's Right? What's Wrong? What's the Difference?
Ethics and Character: Issues that Go to the Heart of Policing

"One of the best courses I have been to. A difficult subject because at times the answers are not so black and white, but we have been given the tools to present the material so it will be received well and there will be some credibility behind the presentation."

"Very good workbook... great resource material. MORE THAN ENOUGH for either 8 hour or 16 hour training block."

"Great class... one of the best I have ever been to."

September 11-15, 2006 participants

Course Overview: Successful completion of this four and one-half day program will authorize graduates to present the eight hour Law Enforcement Ethics, the sixteen hour Ethics for Field Training Officers, and four hour In-Service Ethics courses within their own agencies or local/regional academies.

Topics:

- Models for Ethical Decision-making
- Identifying Dilemmas and "Stakeholders"
- The Six Pillars of Character and The Principles of Ethical Policing
- The Condition of Society: What Does it Mean to Policing?
- Higher Standards/Different Standards
- Strategies for Creating a Healthy Ethical Environment
- Understanding the Present through the Classics: Teaching Ethics from Solid Ground

Who Should Attend? Trainers and law enforcement practitioners preparing to teach or lead ethics discussions in their agencies or academies.

Note: This program is best suited for individuals with prior training experience.

Course Graduates: Since 1993, the Ethics Train-the-Trainer course has graduated over 7,000 law enforcement trainers. Course graduates have been drawn from over 750 agencies across the United States, Canada and Great Britain.
